Switzer - Mensinger Wedding Rites Saturday, Aug. 19th

The flower banked Vulcan United church was the scene of a pretty wedding of much interest Saturday, August 19th., at 3 p.m., when Lois Evelyn, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Mensinger, Vulcan was united in marriage with William Fredrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Switzer, Edmonton. Rev. O. H. Rollis performed the double ring ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Mrs. N. K. Budd. Her bridal gown of white satin, with raised self-colored design was fashioned with a tight bodice, buttoned down the back and closed with tiny covered buttons. The nylon net yoke was embroidered with seed pearls, and the full crinoline skirt, with slight train, was caught up with dainty clusters of lily-of-the-valley. Her full-length veil was of net with appliqued satin flowers. The halo head-dress was looped with fine strands of pearls. Her bouquet of American Beauty roses was fashioned with streamers of French tulle lace, and the only ornament worn was a double string of pearls a gift of the groom.

Mrs. Ronnie Campbell of Okotoks was the matron of honor and she chose a floor length gown of pink nylon sheer, with harmonizing accessories. Her chapel veil was complimented with a tiara of pink tulle and tiny rose buds, and she carried a bouquet of white carnations.

The flower girl was Miss Linda-Lee Lockart of Calgary, and she was attired in a daffodil sheer gown, featuring a full, floor length skirt and her head dress was of pale green satin ribbon and white daisies. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of pink carnations and Sweetheart roses, held with streamers of tulle lace.

The groom was married in his Canadian Army uniform, and was attended by Mr. Lawrence Mensinger, brother of the bride.

A profusion of summer flowers and fern was used throughout the church, while guest pews were marked by bows of white satin and bouquets of pastel toned sweetpeas.

Guests were shown to their places by the ushers, Mr. Elwood and Mr. Harold Mensinger. The groom presented each of the attendants with a suitable gift.

During the seating of the guests and signing of the register, and later at the reception Mrs. Gladys Koeller sang, "The Wedding Prayer," "Because" and "At Dawning."

Following the ceremony a reception for 140 guests was held in the I.O.O.F. hall, which was decorated for the occassion with streamers of pink and white and clusters of wedding bells. Bouquets of summer blooms and tall white tapers completed the decorating scheme. A three-tiered wedding cake centred the bride's table. Mr. Tom Shaw, uncle of the bride proposed the toast to her, likening marriage to a road down which she and her husband would travel, a road with smooth places and also with rocky stretches, but all leading to much happiness. Rev. Rollis too, addressed the bridal couple and expressed his good wishes for their marriage. The groom very ably responded to both.

Receiving with the bridal couple were Mrs. Switzer and Mr. and Mrs. Mensinger. Mrs. Mensinger chose for for her daughter's wedding a pastel blue crepe afternoon gown, with which she wore navy accessories. Her corsage was of Sweetheart roses. The groom's mother was attired in brown with matching accessories and she also wore a corsage of Sweetheart roses.

For going away the bride changed to a suit of green gabardine, featuring a pleated jacket-skirt. She wore gold accessories and a corsage of yellow rose buds completed her ensemble.

Following a honeymoon spent at Banff and other mountain points Mr. and Mrs. Switzer will make their home for the present at White Horse.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Fred Noble, Mrs. J. Thompson, Corley Noble, Okotoks; Mrs. W. Switzer and Don, Edmonton; Mrs. Bull and children, Mr. and Mrs. T. Lebeau, Mr. and Mrs. Ceril Sheepy, Mrs. Vivian Morehead, Calgary; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reed, Nanton; Mrs. N. D. Lockhart and Linda-Lee, Miss Mareen Wolfe, Calgary; Miss Peggy Elder and Miss Pearl McBride, Whitehorse.

Stanley Smith Killed in Accident

Stanley Smith, aged 27 years of Edmonton was almost instantly killed Monday night, when his car went out of control on the approach to the bridge on the Little Bow river half way between Vulcan and Nanton.

Mr. Smith who was alone at the time of the accident was visiting at the home of his father and mother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. McMasters and was returning to their home to tell his wife of his plans to go on a fishing trip. The car, which was completely demolished overturned at the Sam White gate and Mr. White went to the aid of the injured man immediately. He was joined by Dale McMasters, Mrs. Smiths brother, and although they attempted to help him, Mr. Smith died almost as soon as they reached him.

He is survived by his wife and two small children. No inquest was held, but an investigation was conducted by Corporal J. Hurst and Dr. A. D. Thompkins, coroner.

Southern District (defined below)	Sept 23 to Nov 15	Sept 23 to Oct 23

DEFINITION OF DISTRICTS

The Northern District of Alberta is that part of the province lying north of the right bank of the Athabaska River going downstream to its intersection with the north boundary of Township 72 and north of the north boundary of Township 72 from the Athabaska River to its intersection with the interprovincial boundary between Albert and Saskatchewan.

The Edmonton District is that part of the province lying south of the Northern District and north of a line described as follows: Commencing at the point where the centre line of Highway No. 12 intersects the east boundary of Alberta; thence westerly along the said centre line of Highway No. 12, through Coronation and Stettler, to the point of intersection of the centre line of Highway No. 12 with the centre line of Highway No. 2; thence southerly along the said centre line of Highway No. 2 to its intersection with the centre line of Highway No. 11; thence westerly along the said centre line of Highway No. 11 to Brazeau; thence due west to the west boundary of Alberta.

The Southern District is that part of the province lying south of the Edmonton District.

CLOSE SEASON

There is a close season throughout the year on Wood Ducks, Swans, Ross's Goose, Cranes, all shore birds except Wilson's Snipe, and all migratory non-game and insectivorous birds.

Migratory game birds killed during the open season may be possessed in Alberta at any time, but the onus of proof that birds possessed were lawfully killed is on the person having the birds in possession.

BAG LIMITS

In any day: Ducks, 8; Geese, 5; Coots and Rails, 10; Wilson's Snipe, 8.

In any open season: Ducks 40; Geese, 15; Rails and Coots, 50; Wilson's Snipe 50.

Possession limits: 16 Ducks, 10 Geese: 16 Wilson's Snipe; 20 Coots and Rails.

GUNS, APPLIANCES AND HUNTING METHODS

Prohibited: The use of a pump or repeating shotgun with a magazine that can carry more than two cartridges; a swivel gun; a machine gun; a battery; a rifle a shotgun loaded with a single bullett; any gun larger than number 10 gauge; any weapon other than a gun or a bow and arrow; the use of live birds as decoys; the use of any aeroplane, power-boat, sail-boat or night-light.

No person shall:

Shoot geese within 100 yards of the edge of the waters of the North Saskatchewan, Red Deer, Bow, South Saskatchewan, Oldman Smoky or Lille Smoky Rivers or migratory game birds within one-half cile of the edge of the waters of Sullivan, Beaverhill or Buffalo Lakes;

Shoot migratory birds from a motor vehicle or wheeled vehicle or from a vehicle to which draught animal is attached;

Have with him for his own use more than one shotgun at any one time while hunting migratory birds;

Hunt migratory birds by the use or aid of baiting with grain or other materials that may attract migratory game birds;

Shoot migratory birds earlier than one-half hour before sunrise or later than one-half hour after sunset.

The penalty for violation of the migratory bird law is a fine of not more than $300 and not less than $10, or imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months, or both fine and imprisonment.

High River Hold Swim Tests Here

The swimming and water safety tests under Red Cross auspices which were to have been conducted for local swimmers will be held instead at the Vulcan swimming pool on Wednesday, Aug 23. These tests will be made for junior, intermediate and senior aspirants based on requirements under the Red Cross plan of swimming and water safety qualifications.

The official examiner is David Mitchell. The reason that the local tests are not made at High River is that the water is low, with swift flowing currents, and temperature (50 degrees) much too cold. Vulcan pool is 75 degrees in temperature.

High Riverites seeking to qualify in these tests are 15 juniors, 6 intermediates, 2 seniors and this does not include the 15 or more Girl Guides.—High River Times.

The Rail Strike

The Advocate is making every possible effort to have this week's paper delivered as usual. Truck lines, and in some cases private cars, have been arranged for so that all subscribers and advertisers will receive the usual service.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Sir:

May I have sufficient space in your paper to explain to your readers the outcome of a recent petition to the Highway Traffic Board.

The petition requested a bus service leaving Vulcan at 8:00 a.m. daily except Sunday and travelling to Calgary returning about 5:00 p.m.

The Highway Traffic Board in a recent letter to me had agreed that such a service had their approval and Mr. Dutnall, of Milo, had applied for such a franchise.

We are now advised that the Greyhound Bus Lines have agreed to re-route one of their buses to go through Vulcan at 12 noon going north, arriving in Calgary at 2:30 p.m. and returning at 4:30 p.m. This gives the person who wishes to travel by bus two hours in Calgary.

It would appear to me that the Greyhound Lines simply wish to give this line any service they see fit in order to hold their franchise and prevent anyone else from running a bus service.

It would also appear to me that the Highway Traffic Board has seen fit to ignore the petition which was widely signed in this town and district and permit Greyhound Bus Lines to hold their franchise regardless of service.

I feel that all who are interested should communicate by wire or otherwise with the Highway Traffic Board, stating the service is not satisfactory and demand it should be on the schedule we requested originally.

We have a chance to get a good bus service through Mr. Dutnall, why should we settle for anything less from Greyhound?

Yours very truly,
C. R. Robson

RURAL RASCALS—

The garden tour of the Vulcan Rural Rascals was held on Tues. Aug. 15. The club members met at the home of Donna and Deanna Rushfeldt for lunch, then left for their garden tour. Miss Mewha, new District Home Economist judged the gardens with Donna Rushfelt having the highest judging points.

Arrangements were made for their Achievement Day which will be held at the Red Cross School on Monday, August 28, at 8:00 p.m. Everyone is Welcome.

Vulcan Swimmers In Prize List At Innisfail

Local Entries Compare Favorably With Competitors

Nine swimmers from Vulcan motored to Innisfail to take part in their third annual Aquacade and succeeeded in bringing back a first, two seconds and two thirds, and this despite the fact that a late arrival resulted in the younger swimmers missing all their events.

In the girls Junior 50 yard Backstroke, Beth Saxby placed first and Sharon Buehler second in a close finish which out-distanced their nearest competitors.

John Hunter captured a second prize ribbon in the breast stroke and a third in the free style swim. In both these events he had missed his own age group and had competed in the senior events.

Marlene Lloyd made a good showing in the Senior diving but failed to collect a ribbon.

Gordon Campbell stepped up two classes and competed in the Senior diving event, taking third place ribbon.

Swimmers competed from Innisfail, Red Deer, Drumheller and Vulcan, making a splendid race and diving meet with keen competition.

The program in the evening proved most interesting and entertaining and the Vulcanites, driven by Ron Buehler and Lundy Findlay, stayed for this program.

Country Fair Conveners Named

The varies committees are sparing no efforts to make the coming "Country Fair" a real success, they have lined up a program of entertainment that should please the most critical, all that remains is that the people get behind the sponsors and fill every exhibit class.

A 14 page booklet giving full details has been finished and will be in the hands of the residents of the district this week.

For the exhibitors wishing further information the names of the convener of the different committees are as follows:

Children's Pet Show—Mr. Shields.
Section 2 to 6—Mrs. Hill and Mrs. Brodwick.
Section 8—Mrs. Keith Elder.
Sections 9 and 10—Mrs. Chell and Mrs. Labbett.
Section 11 to 14—Ross Walker.
Sections 16 to 18—A. G. Saxby.

Grease Monkeys Defeat Kirkcaldy

Vulcan Grease Monkey's defeated Kirkcaldy Kittens by a score of 8 to 3 in the final game of a series best of three games played in Kirkcaldy on Sunday last.

Wednesday, August 30th, Set For Vulcan Swim Competition

Plans are now completed for the holding of the second Annual Aqua-Gala at the Vulcan and district Memorial Swimming Pool on Wednesday, August, 30th.

Preliminary events will take place at 2:00 in the afternoon with the final events and specialty acts starting at 7:30 sharp in the evening.

Last years Aqua-Gala will be remembered as a very successful and highly entertaining evening Added entries this year will make it necessary for the show to be put on in two sections.

Competition has been very keen in all surrounding water shows. The Vulcan Aqua-Gala will wind up the competitive swimming season and bring together the best from all the other shows. It is considered highly probable that new high marks will be recorded with highways.

New Bus Schedule

Effective Aug. 22, the Greyhound Bus schedule will be changed as follows:

Southbound—Leave Calgary at 4:30 p.m., arrive Vulcan 6:35 p.m., leave Vulcan 7.00 p.m., leave Champion 7:23 p.m., leave Carmangay 7:38 p.m., arrive Lethbridge 8:45 p.m.

Northbound—Leave Lethbridge 10:00 a.m., arrive Carmangay at 11:03 a.m., arrive Champion 11:17 a.m., arrive Vulcan 11:40 a.m., leave Vulcan 11:55 a.m., arrive Calgary 2:00 p.m.

Because it was losing $376,200 daily on railroad operations, the government of Argentina has contemplated tearing up 40 per cent of the trackage and replacing it with highways.

A new milestone in Canadian aviation history was marked when Trans-Canada Air Lines' three millionth passenger on North American services alighted from a TCA North Star at Montreal on July 25th. "Mr. 3,000,000" was F. W. Crickard, Vancouver importer and a retired Merchant Navy officer, who was aboard TCA's first trancontinental passenger-carrying flight in April, 1939. This time he was on a business trip via TCA from Vancouver to New York. In the photo Mr. Crickard is shown reminiscing with TCA Captain Bill Barnes who was a member of the crew on the first flight 11 years ago.

Serving to indicate the rapid rate of progress made by Canadian aviation in the last decade during which a quarter of the nation's population has travelled by air, are these inset photos of commercial air liners of today and yesterday. Flying mainline transcontinental routes now are the big 4-engine pressurized Trans-Canada Air Lines North Stars (right) which when fully loaded with 40 passengers, cargo and fuel weight 40 tons, more than four times heavier than twin-engine Lockheed 14's (left) which were used when transcontinental air service was inaugurated by TCA in 1939.

Drunkenness Is No Excuse--

"I DIDN'T KNOW what I was doing. I didn't really intend to hurt him" . . . . "to crash into the car" . . . . "to commit murder" . . . . "to leave my child" . . . . "to hit that policeman" . . . . "You see, Your Honor, I was a little high!"

"I was intoxicated."

"I was under the influence of liquor . . . ."

"I didn't mean to" . . . . "The act was not premeditated. . . ."

Intoxication as an excuse, twisted and turned this way and that, but still an excuse.

Something to lean on when common sense has gone.

An appeal to the court on the ground that all men have this common failing, and you, Your Honor, know that a man is not quite all there when he is drunk and should't, therefore, be held responsible for what he does.

When is all this nonsense in our courts going to stop?

Drunkenness is no excuse and never can or should be held as such.

Drunkenness is a cause.

A man or woman who, when intoxicated, damages, injures, or kills, is and should be just as liable as the man or woman who, when sober, damages, injures, or kills.

To the dead child it makes no difference whether its killer was sober or intoxicated.

If anything, a sober killer is more likely to have taken precaution to avoid the death. The drunk killer is a killer whether in a car or with a gun or knife in hand.—C.W.N.A.

The Wheat Situation - - -

Wars and rumors of wars turn mankinds' attention to the necessity of storing food. Since the Korean conflict started, wheat importing nations have shown a more active interest in the purchase of supplies. With good crops in Europe, substantial supplies in the United States and the prospect of a good wheat output in Western Canada, there should be no dearth of wheat in the world. Nevertheless, the wheat deficient nations like to have a good reserve on hand in case the war should spread. At the present time the indications are for a healthy market during the 1950-51 crop year just started.

With the end of July the Five Year Pool conducted by the Canadian Wheat Board came to a close and the initial price dropped from $1.75 a bushel basis 1 northern at the terminal to $1.40. The latter price will give the farmer in Alberta an average of around $1.20 at the local elevator.

The Right Honorable C. D. Howe, Minister of Trade and Commerce announced that the domestic wheat price would vary in accordance with prices prevailing under the International Wheat Agreement which ranges from the minimum of $1.54 to $1.98. The Wheat Board has announced that the current domestic price will be $1.98 for 1 Northern at the terminal.

Farmers have been assured that the final payment of the Five Year Pool will be made before the year end. There has been no indication as to what this payment will be. A great deal will depend upon the amount of money the federal government will contribute in compensation for low domestic prices which prevailed for a considerable period in the post-war years.—Brooks Bulletin.

James Syme Hastlings, who worked on the Cincinnati Enquirer in the early 1900's, contributed many famous sayings which are still used by current wits. Among them are the lines: "Every baby resembles the relative who has the money." 'Do right and fear no man; don't write and fear no woman" was anther. Again, "Most husbands develop into pretty decent animals, considering the material their wives have to work with."

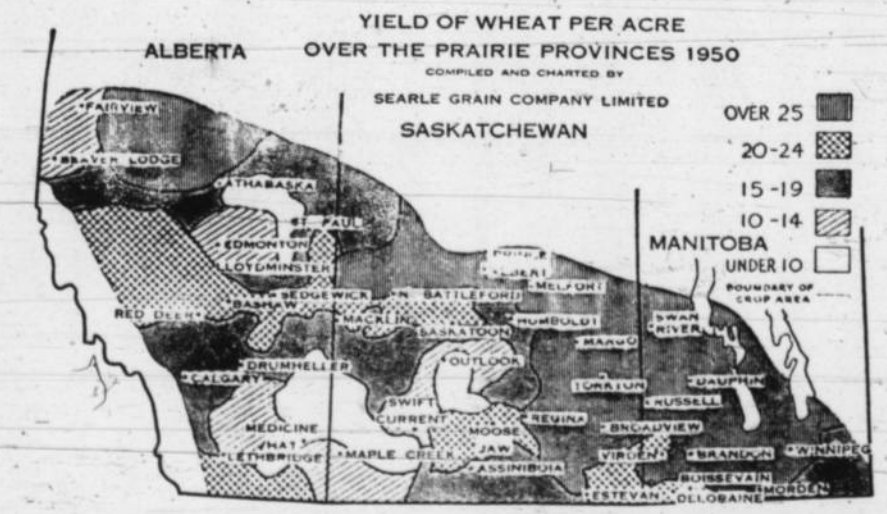
IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of a dear husband and father, George Jordan, who passed away on August, 21st, 1942.

"God knows how much we miss him
Never shall his memory fade,
Loving thoughts shall ever wander
To the spot where he is laid."

—Ever remembered by his wife and family.



The map printed above shows the yields of wheat in the various districts in each of the prairie provinces. It will be observed at a glance that there is an unusally large area containing over 20 bushels to the acre. There are, too, unfortunately, three areas shown in white that are under 10 bushels, the result of drought. Until the middle of June these drough areas shown in white were very much larger. Generous rains from the third week in June to date are responsible for the very great improvement in yield that has taken place.

Preparing Vegetables For the Fall Exhibit

As the season for fairs draws near the vegetable grower begins to consider the showing of his produce. Since these vegetables will be judged in open competition with others, care should be taken in selection and preparation. Where a few simple rules are followed in this regard the exhibitor stands to gain, says E. W. Chipman, Experimental Station, Kentville, N.S.

Perhaps one of the important points, applicable to all vegetables, is the need for uniformity of size and type. Another requirement is the freedom from any blemishes or deformities. In order to insure this is best to have as large a population as possible from which to select.

All vegetables should appear as fresh as possible. When it can be arranged, leave them in the garden until a few hours prior to the exhibition time. In other cases, where vegetables must be held, they should be placed in damp moss. Leafy vegetables should have their roots immersed in water.

In shipping vegetables great care should be exercised in packing. Damp moss should be used for the root and leafy crops. Other crops should be well wrapped with plain paper and then packed in paper clippings or excelsior.

In the actual preparation of the vegetables all soils particles should be removed and where possible a light polishing may be carried out. With the root crops and potaties a soft sponge may be used, or should it be necessary to use a brush, care should be taken not to remove any skin or bruise the specimen in any way.

The following suggestions should prove helpful to the grower in preparing his various vegetables for exhibition purposes:

Root Crops—

(Beets, Carrots, Parsnips, Turnips)

Only young edible roots should be selected. All roots shoud be be selected. All rootlets except the tap root should be removed. About on to two inches of top should be left on.

Leafy Vegetables—

(Cabbage, Cauliflower, Lettuce, Spinach)

Several of the outside leaves should be left on. Cauliflower requirs a firm close curd free from leaves and having the outside leaves cut one inch from the curd.

Cucumbers—

Here the specimens should not be too large or over mature, a dark green being preferable. With pickling cucumbers the size should be around one to two inches long.

Squash Pumpkin—

Squash and pumpkin should be thoroughly mature, as indicated by the hard texture of the skin. The stem must be attached.

Corn—

Corn ears must be filled to the end, and have the same number of rows of kernels. The husks should be removed.

Onions—

Onions should definetly show signs of maturity with no evidence of thick necks. The outer skin of the onion should not be removed to excess. About one inch of tops should be left on.

WANTED—A 4 CYLYNDER CAR
(The Spotlight)

The sooner Canadian manufacturers get back to low-priced, 4 cylinder car, selling for about $1,200.00 the sooner Canadian people will stop buying other cars. We don't want any embargoes on shipment of low-priced autos from Britain.

But I seriously doubt if our Canadian firms will wake up in time. They are still lulled to sleep down in Windsor and Detroit by the greatest demand for new automobie units of all time. Their arguments go like this: Why make small units for $1,200.00 when we can sell all we can make at $2,400?

Meanwhile, however, Austin and Morris cars are capturing the six-cylinder market with four cylinders and making a future four-cylinder car market for years to come.

Accidents---

(From Hanna Herald)

It won't be long until farmers are in the midst of harvesting operations. Tractors, combines, swathers and other harvesting equipment will be humming merrily along. At the height of this busy season, there is a rush to "get the crop off" and in this haste operators of farm machinery are apt to forget one important thing, the prevention of accidents.

Every year at harvesting time accidents take their toll of life and limb. In most instances they can be attributed to haste, and the disregard for the dangers that are ever present. This season it is to be hoped that greater care than ever will be exercised by oprators of harvsting equipment.

"Less haste and more speed" will certainly apply when this year's harvest is to be taken off. All the grain in the world can't recompense for the loss of a limb or the death of a member of one's family. Caution is the watchword as the 1950 harvest approaches.

Am I My Brothers Keeper

For centuries our forefathers like ourselves, have been asked the question, "Am I my Brother's Keeper?" In the last decade in all free thinking and peace loving nations, this question has been affirmatively answered.

The invading forces of a crazed Dictator brought about the combined assistance of all democratic countries. During the last few months, and in our own country, we can see the answer to this question, "Am I my Brother's Keeper.", in the voluntary response to assisting all persons affected by the great Flood in Manitoba. We have also been deeply concerned about the tragic fires in Rimouski and little Cabana to the point where Federal, Provincial and individual contributions had been sent without question to their respective aid. While it may appear to be small in comparison, the total loss of one pair of eyes is a major tragedy to an individual. It is true, there is no daily or weekly press releases on an individual, but to the person in question, the complete loss of his vision is as heartbreaking as the loss of millions of dollars worth of fertie soil, or the complete devastation of villages and towns by fire. There is no National Fund raised in excitement over the loss of vision, but we appeal to you to weigh this subject carefully. The Canadian National Institute for the Blind will be shorty conducting its central and southern Alberta Campaign to aid in our vital work, and the public's continued support is urgently requested. We believe that all persons living under a democratic system of government should pause a moment and realize they are "Their Brother's Keeper."

CANADA NEEDS
MEN TO TRAIN AS ANTI-AIRCRAFT GUNNERS
A major requirement of Canada's defensive system today is men trained for anti-aircraft operations. Charged with the defence of vital areas, the men of the anti-aircraft units are equipped and trained in the use of modern scientific equipment — electronics, radar, radio and telephone.
There are very few more important jobs than service in an anti-aircraft unit for young men who want to make sure that Canada is well defended against any eventuality.
To enlist you must —
1. Be a Canadian citizen or British subject.
2. Be between 17 and 29 years of age.
3. Be single.
4. Meet Army test requirements.
5. Volunteer for service anywhere.

Growing Winter Wheat In Alberta

At this time of year a number of grain growers will be wondering what to do about winter wheat. The grower who makes it a regular practice to produce this crop and who is fortunate enough to have a crop this year will have no problem other than to make sure he has the variety that will give the best returns. He will harvest the present crop during the month of August and if he follows the recommendation of field husbandmen will seed the next crop some time during the first two weeks of September.

Experience indicates damage from root rots is more likely with early seeding but with very late seeding the plants may not develop enough reserves to withstand the severity of our winters. The grower who has never tried winter wheat or who is in an area where production of this crop is hazardous would do well to consider the following information before going into winter wheat production says B.C. Jenkins, Experimental Station Lethbridge, Alberta.

Including all three of the prairie provinces, winter wheat is consistently and most successfully produced in the southwest corner of Alberta. Outside this areas successes are less frequent and failures may be attributed to one or more assorted causes too numerous to mention. The greatest single factor which limits winter wheat production at the present time appears to be the lack of varieties that will survive our winters over a wide range of conditions. Winter killing is indeed a very complex phenomenon and is undoubtedly a result of the combined interaction of a great many factors such as susceptibility to root rots, lack of frost and drought resistance, and inability to remain dormant over short periods of warm weather.

No variety has been produced that combines a maximum number of attributes which fit it for the purpose for which winter wheat should be admirably suited, namely, the most efficient use of limited moisture supplies. Of the varieties most commonly grown, Kharkov M.C. 22 appears to be best adapted in southern Alberta; Yogo is preferred in the drier plains area and Jones Fife, while it is favored to some extent because it lacks beards, is neither as hardy nor as suitable for bread making as the other two, Yogo shatters less readily that Kharkov but it shows a greatest tendency to lodge where moisture is abundant. Actually all three of the varieties may be faulted in many ways.

An extensive program of winter wheat improvement was recently undertaken at this Station and it is expected that, given a reasonably undertaken at this Station and it is expected that, given a reasonable amount of time, many improvements in this crop may be accomplished. Efforts to obtain additional hardiness are not being confined entirely to combinations within existing varieties but also include combinations with wheatgrasses and rye. Sawfly and disease resistant varieties are being developed and, in addition to those primarily designed for dryland, soft white wheats for high quality pastry are being developed which should be well adapted on irrigated lands or high rainfall areas of western Canada.

PREVENT WEED SPREAD DURING HARVEST:

Many farmers spend huge sums of money every year in an effort to rid the land of weeds. Then when harvest comes afound they allow the combine to scatter more weeds to build up work for the future.

When combining the crop this year give some thought to preventing weed spread, suggests G. R. Sterling, Supervisor of Weed Control for the Alberta Department of Agriculture. Most combines are equipped with cleaning devices to separte the weed seeds from the grain. The seed should be collected in tight bags and emptied into secure buildings where it can be ground and used for livestock feed. If the weed seeds are of no value destroy them by burning.

SOCIAL SECURITY—

A little boy at school for the first time was sobbing bitterly.

"What's the matter, Willy?" asked the teacher.

"I don't like school and I have to stay here until I'm fourteen," wailed the lad.

"Don't let that worry you," said the teacher, "I have to stay here until I'm sixty-five."

—Exchange

SCARE-BUYING—

There is some recent evidence of stepped up retail buying in Canada, following the Karean war, reports The Financial Post. Department stores sales were up sharply in all provinces in July.

"Like a three-ring circus" was how a refrigerator company sales manager described his shipping room to The Post.

Refrigerators, he said, were moving out at top speed; dealers were apparently trying to stock up. Consumers were buying too.

Space heaters usually move faster later in the year, but dealers are reported to be stocking up on them now, The Post learned.

And tires have abnormally fast some time.

Many retailers are afraid that the signs pointed to Canadians catching a bit of the panic-buying fever that has gripped Americans since the cold war turned hot.

A MOMENT'S THOUGH MAY SAVE A LIFE

Familiarize yourself with these basic principals of good driving.

1. Develop skill in the control of your vehicle.
2. Learn what you can expect of the vehicle.
3. Signal your intentions —where possible—to all persons who may be affected by your acts.
4. Have a regard for other users of the highways and streets.
5. Avoid taking foolish chances.
6. Watch for the mistakes of others and do what you can to compensate for them.

Be Careful - the life you save may be your own!
